

Notice of amendments to Tender Documents

We have now published on our website all the Tender Forms to enable you to submit your tender/s for the services we wish to procure as set out in the eleven Information for Applicants (“IFA”).

This is to give you notice that we have made amendments to a small number of individual services to extend or clarify the areas/categories of law for which we are inviting you to tender.

The IFAs affected are:

- North West
- Midlands; and
- Reading.

The IFA are now published with the correct information, however in summary the changes are as follows:
