

NOTICE OF EXTENSION TO THE UNIFIED CONTRACT (CIVIL) 2007
IN RESPECT OF FAMILY CATEGORY OF LAW ONLY
EXTENSION OF THE CONTRACT TO 31 JANUARY 2012

Words and expressions defined in the Unified Contract (Civil) 2007 have the same meanings when used in this notice.

This notice of extension only affects Suppliers who provide services in the Family Category of Law under the Unified Contract (Civil) 2007.

Pursuant to Clause 2 of the Contract for Signature (Contract Extension), the term of the Unified Contract (Civil) 2007 is extended for those affected so that it expires at midnight on 31 January 2012.

To give effect to the extension of the Unified Contract (Civil) 2007, Clause 1 of the Contract for Signature (Contract Period) has been amended for those Suppliers as follows to reflect the new date on which this Contract will expire:

“Contract Period

- 1. This Contract will start on 1 April 2007. It will expire at midnight on 31 January 2012 unless it is lawfully ended or extended before then.”*

The extension of the Unified Contract (Civil) 2007 only applies to the Family Category of Work. Unless we specify otherwise in your Schedule, the extension does not authorise Tolerance work or Licensed work in Categories other than Family.

Note that a separate notice of contract extension has been issued affecting certain Suppliers who provide both Family and Housing services under the Unified Contract (Civil) 2007. Suppliers who are affected by that notice need not rely upon and are not affected by this notice.

This notice will be deemed received in accordance with Clause 24 of the Unified Contract (Civil) 2007 Standard Terms.
