

Other research commissioned relating to the legal aid reforms

1. Frontier Economics (2003) A Market Analysis of Legal Aided Services Provided by Solicitors - A report prepared for the DCA and LSC
<http://www.dca.gov.uk/laid/frontier-solicitors-rpt.pdf>
2. Cape and Moorhead Report to the LSC (July 2005) Demand Induced Supply ? – Identifying cost drivers in criminal defence work
<http://www.lsrc.org.uk/publications/camocrim.pdf>
3. FreshMinds (December 2005) Legal Aid Review - prepared for PKF
<http://www.legalaidprocurementreview.gov.uk/publications.htm>
4. Managing Diversity Associates (2006) Research on Ethnic Diversity amongst suppliers of Legal Aid services - report for Legal Services Commission
<http://www.lccsa.org.uk/assets/documents/consultation/mda%20research%20-%20april%2006.pdf>
5. PKF (April 2006) Review of the legal professions' delivery of legal aid services for Lord Carter's Review Team
<http://www.legalaidprocurementreview.gov.uk/publications.htm>
6. Otterburn Legal Consulting (June 2006) Lord Carter's Review of Legal Aid Procurement for the Carter Team
<http://www.legalaidprocurementreview.gov.uk/publications.htm>
7. LECG (September 2006) Legal Aid Reforms Proposed by the Carter Report - Analysis and Commentary prepared for the Law Society -
<http://www.lawsociety.org.uk/documents/downloads/dynamic/lecglegalaidanalyses.pdf>